Madonna University Enrolling for Fall Classes at the Macomb University Center
Marketing now offered as one of four bachelor's degree programs

LIVONIA, Mich. — Macomb-area students can enroll now for Madonna University fall classes at the Macomb University Center at Macomb Community College, where Madonna now offers four bachelor's degree completion programs. Registration is open through Friday, Sept. 4; classes will begin Tuesday, Sept. 8.

In addition to degree completion programs in the popular hospitality management, criminal justice and emergency management areas of study, Madonna University now offers a Bachelor of Science degree in marketing at Macomb.

Students majoring in marketing will gain employable skills as they prepare for careers in retail purchasing, marketing management, advertising, customer relations, sales management, small business ownership and more. All courses are taught by experienced Madonna University faculty.

Madonna University accepts up to 90 credits for students transferring from Macomb Community College or other colleges. Students pursuing degrees in the aforementioned majors can take the last 30 credits of classes at the Macomb University Center. This agreement ensures a seamless transition from Macomb Community College to Madonna.

Students can apply for admission, or find out more about Madonna's programs at the Macomb University Center by contacting Linda McIntyre at 586-263-6330, lmcintyre@madonna.edu, or by visiting Room 220-E of the University Center, 44575 Garfield Road, Clinton Township.
