FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: Tuesday, March 31, 2009

Registration Open Through May 1 for Madonna University Paralegal Courses New Federal Bankruptcy Course Offered

What: Madonna University's Paralegal Studies Department is enrolling students now for spring/summer courses. Students may register for classes to earn college credit or as noncredit professional development at a half-price tuition cost.

New this semester is "Bankruptcy," with instructor Christopher Frank of Bankruptcy Management Group in Royal Oak, Mich. The class will provide students and paralegal professionals with an overview of Federal bankruptcy law as it applies to debtors and creditors. Official bankruptcy forms and procedures will be covered.

Other course topics include: contractual relations, business associations, will and trust drafting, medical and legal concepts, case preparation and trial, and legal seminar and practicum. A complete schedule of paralegal courses is available at <http://www.madonna.edu/pages/classschedule.cfm> (pg. 49 of the PDF) or at the Madonna University Registrar's Office, room 2003. For more information about Madonna's paralegal studies program, contact Jennifer Coté at 734-432-5549.

When: Registration for spring/summer courses is open through Friday, May 1, 2009. Paralegal classes begin Monday, May 4 and meet days, evenings and weekends. New bankruptcy course meets Tuesdays, 6:30-10 p.m.
