

Madonna University To Host School Of Business Advising Night

Madonna University in Livonia will host an advising night on Tuesday, January 8 from 4 to 7:30 p.m. for students interested in graduate-level business programs. School of Business faculty members will be available for graduate interviews, career guidance and academic advising. Students will also have the opportunity to enroll and register for classes.

Light refreshments will be served and business card drawings will be held for prize giveaways.

Madonna University offers a master's degree in business administration (MBA) and a master of science in business administration (MSBA) degree. Specializations include: criminal justice leadership, international business, leadership studies, medical and dental practice administration; and quality and operations management, as well as a certificate in marketing management. The new master of business administration (MBA) certificate in information technology management is designed to provide students with a specialization in management of information technology resources. Individuals interested in pursuing the 15 semester-hour certificate must hold a bachelor's degree in computer science or business and have at least three years of experience in a related field.
